9. EAA Store: The Employee Activity Association Store is completely sold out of all Christmas cards and Russell Stover candy. Calculators and clock radios are also gone. The Christmas rush appears to have been as heavy in the EAA Store as in local shopping centers. During the past week, we have averaged $3,500 in sales a day, or $700 an hour. EAA is bullish on America.

Coming Events:

1. We are in the process of preparing for the annual Income Tax Seminar. Numerous state and federal tax forms have been received and tentative arrangements have been made to hold the one-day Seminar in Room GA-13 on 28 January 1976. A Headquarters Notice is being drafted announcing the Seminar. A memorandum is being prepared to each Directorate requesting the names of those who wish to attend the Seminar.

2. The Headquarters Auditorium has been reserved for the afternoon of 22 January 1976 for the annual Government Employees Health Association (GEHA) meeting.
